

LLE Eligibility Criteria

To be considered as an LLE you must:

- a. be judged to be a good serving headteacher with at least three years' experience and expect to remain at current school for at least two years after designation
- b. be accountable for one or more school(s) which meet the LLE school criteria in Your School below
- c. have the full support of the school's governing body and local authority or a senior educational professional
- d. be able to demonstrate that you have sufficient experience of providing support as a coach or mentor to another headteacher or senior member of staff at a school other than your own
- e. be able to commit to the time expectation for LLE deployment

To be considered as an LLE your current school must:

- a. be judged to be good
- b. show consistently high levels of pupil performance or continued improvement over the last three years and in addition be above current floor standards (as evidenced in published Department for Education data)
- c. show capacity and experience of senior leaders to work with and support other schools